

A woman with long dark hair, wearing a white, flowing, sleeveless dress, stands on a beach at sunset. Her arms are outstretched to the sides, and she has a serene expression. The sun is low on the horizon, creating a warm, golden glow that silhouettes her. The ocean is visible in the background, and the sky is a mix of orange and light blue.

WHY LISTEN TO ME? I'M NOT LIKE OTHER COACHES

My name is Jo Warwick and I am just like you.
A spiritual woman, a psychotherapist, an energy healer
& an author with her own online business.

In fact over the last 29 years I have;

- Built 3 successful traditional businesses in a range of industries.
- 10 years working in the commercial sector in Business Development, Sales and Marketing.
- Grew a global Therapeutic & Energy Healing business

- 20+ Years Practitioner of The Law Of Attraction

For the past 5 years I developed a full holistic coaching business which combines my wealth of knowledge, experience and skillset to help other soulful, spiritual women succeed in business profitability and with pleasure – and stop wasting their time and energy doing the wrong things!

Let's be clear I've failed a lot too!

I repetitively devalued myself, my skills, energy and wasted a lot of time for a while, getting frustrated and disheartened.

Confused as to why my online business didn't seem to function and grew as successfully and effortlessly as my bricks and mortar businesses, but I was able to generate 6/7 figure sums for other companies and individuals.

Only when I was finally ready to acknowledge that I had changed and was teaching one thing and doing another!

That I was trusting & implementing traditional business methods instead of using my own successful spiritual, feminine, law of attraction based methods as the driver! So to stop you wasting any more sacred time and precious energy, out of alignment with your truth and holding off your abundance, banging your head against an invisible glass ceiling I wanted to share what I had learnt.

The main reason you are going to love this is because I am solution focused and I'm rather down to earth as a spiritual woman. I love clarity!

You will get very clear of the problems that have held you back when it comes to your business growth, financial success and keeping your spiritual, soulful self intact and honoured.

With over 10,000+ hours of listening to the same problems over and over again, from women just like you, there is a constant pattern as to why the old traditional methods are not working and you are lacking in either clients, money or energy & time right now!

This is not just another guide of empty promises! It is my intention to demonstrate that I know what I am talking about and if you follow the steps then you too can make a fast and effortless shift in your current situation and get crystal clear on your next steps.

I am the creator of the “Rich, Sexy & Free” programme. Founded on my own methodology the Quantum Loop Method which enables you to have an abundance of Riches (Money, Love & Energy) Resources & Relationships, as a passionate, creative, soul-led woman. Deeply supported in the physical & material by the Universe, as you express your soul through your business — without self sacrifice and sabotage.

- Karen/San Fran

Jo is simply amazing! Her feminine approach to business works in perfect harmony with her gifts as a divine energy healer. I had more breakthroughs with Jo within 6 weeks of working with her than I did with almost a year of working with other coaches. I feel so empowered & enlightened.

MY SEXY RICHES & RAGS STORY!

Ever since I was pro-sportswoman training for the Olympics, I have been obsessed with best practice, performance psychology and conscious magnetic attraction for creating your reality and success.

Although you'll be surprised to know I was never a high achiever at school! But I was the good girl who did her best to try to fit in with everyone! I was chosen for the sports teams, lead roles in the school musical & I was also bullied and totally failed my A levels.

For as long as I can remember I've been a Magnetic Powerhouse of attraction for my desires - the big and the small - I expected them to show up and they did.

But I was just as good at attracting what I didn't want, until I finally discovered WHY & HOW I was doing it to myself and self-sabotaging!

From 17, I magnetically manifested my way to training with 3 Olympic medalists, living with the head of the British Eventing Team, a dream horse who was my best friend, working with owners & sponsors and fast-

After that first career ended due to a serious riding injury, that I had manifested to change my life & finally escape the abuse. I transferred my skills & talents to commercial Business. I was a natural at selling, marketing and business development - it was part of my makeup to make others feel good (I was a good girl remember).

I was potent and on fire, and once again fast tracked my way through start-ups & medium sized Tech companies to become a Business Development/Sales Director.

I was having so much fun (with the odd bit of jealousy) weaving in and out of working for others and creating & growing several physical & online companies of my own with failures and successes, but generating good revenue and supporting employees.

In my final role, before another life metamorphosis to become a Psychotherapist & energy healer I was as a Director in an event marketing company! — It was the ultimate playing in business! I attend sporting & social events around the world, mixing with celebrities, Olympians, luxury brands.

Reaching the HIGH and the it crumbled...AGAIN!

I was awesome at making others a lot of money, growing businesses and attracting incredible opportunities for myself - but I also had a chronic good girl GLASS CEILING & hindering MONEY story of RICHES to RAGS!

As soon as I attracted prosperity & success I would LOSE IT — leaving me with debt & second jobs to get by!

This pattern of pain and bliss went on for decades even as I became a Psychotherapist with 8 years of personal therapy, as well as investing in business coaches, books, training — so much money, time & effort!

Until I FINALLY unlocked what NO OTHER Business/ money coach was ever able to give me...

What had been the KEY to my extraordinary successes - had also been the cause of my failures...

That being said, here are the 7 Reasons why the Old Business Methods are NOT working for YOU!

REASON 1 - THE FEAR OF FAILURE!

You're Not Wrong, Bad Or Alone!

The FACT is most traditional business methods will make you feel like a failure - for being a woman, for being spiritual, for not fitting in or not achieving enough!

It's important to address that elephant in the room! The lurking shadow that currently might feel a bit too close for comfort.

Yet facing the truth we can take the fear, out of the fear of failure, you can claim your power back. What is really the deepest issue with FAILURE - being rejected, not fitting in, being alone, being judged, having to get a Normal job, death?

Truth is you're an astoundingly capable woman who will do whatever it takes to survive! You've already had to pull up your big girl pants many times — finding courage & strength you didn't know you had.

So the real fear is IF YOU can thrive in your Freedom to be you and do what you love as a business and be PAID richly & supported for it.

So the fear of failure is really about letting yourself & your SOUL down! Well, lets change that...you're not on you own and I'm here to help you!

REASON 2 - THE 80/20 PROSPERITY FLIP!

Why Your Business Is Not Working For You!

I expect you've always been a high achiever in your own way, a hard worker and perhaps you would say you were a GOOD girl too - always doing the right things other people told you... even in business!

So naturally you've put A TON OF EFFORT to making money, into manifesting, into your career/business, just like you would into your home life & relationships...

— AND YET the results have been at times deeply disappointing!

Honestly the ROI (return on your investment) on your effort, time & money has been POOR! Seemingly never enough to have the life you want or even need!

I know you're exhausted by the hustle, and frustrated because you not sure what you are doing wrong and what's missing.

You're doing what the Traditional Business Methods and coaches tell you but it's still not happening the way you dreamed, hoped and believed it would...

FLIPPING THE PROBLEM!

The problem is NOT YOU! But you have been working the wrong way FOR YOU! Like trying to make toast without plugging the toaster into the electric socket!

So naturally, the results will take 100% more effort and with disappointing results or none at all.

You can feel it! You feel POOR, not good enough, and anxious no matter what results you see or what you have achieved so far !!

I can assume you've been in the traditional business beliefs of 80% or more, BEHAVIOUR+ ACTION of hard work, effort, worry etc...

Whilst ONLY 20% or LESS caring about what you think, how you feel, your energy levels, your connection to inner self & Source, your pleasure & joy, taking care of you, giving to you, supporting you & chilling out your mind, body & energy - so you can be receptive to your desires.

—Yet this is caring about YOU, where the ELECTRICAL POWER comes from and let's call it ALIGNMENT!

Without the energy from your Alignment, you're always going to be MAGNETIC TO POVERTY, not prosperity.

THE PROSPERITY FLIP!

It's time to make the Prosperity FLIP - and give 80% of your focus and attention to your ALIGNMENT — first!

Like switching the power on at the socket, your actions will then be juiced up with a POTENT creative force, aligned with your inner truth and naturally MAGNETIC to success with more EASE!

You will no longer need to MAKE IT HAPPEN, using the DIY (do-it-all-yourself) METHOD, from a fear of failure and desperation to pay the bills —which leads to self-sacrificing, de-valuing of your femininity your soul, your passion - which results in burnout!

But instead allowing your success to happen because you are plugged in & turned on connected to your FULL POWER, as a woman, aligned with power source of the Universe and accepting the results of abundance.

It is this energetic level that is the SECRET the most truly successful people in all of history.

You may think you know this. Yet what does your Money, Health, Business & Relationships say? Are you getting 80% positive results with only 20% effort, time & energy - if so you have FLIPPED!

REASON 3 - USING ONLY HALF YOUR POWER

Mis-Alignment of YOU! Your MIND, Your Feelings, Soul & Body!

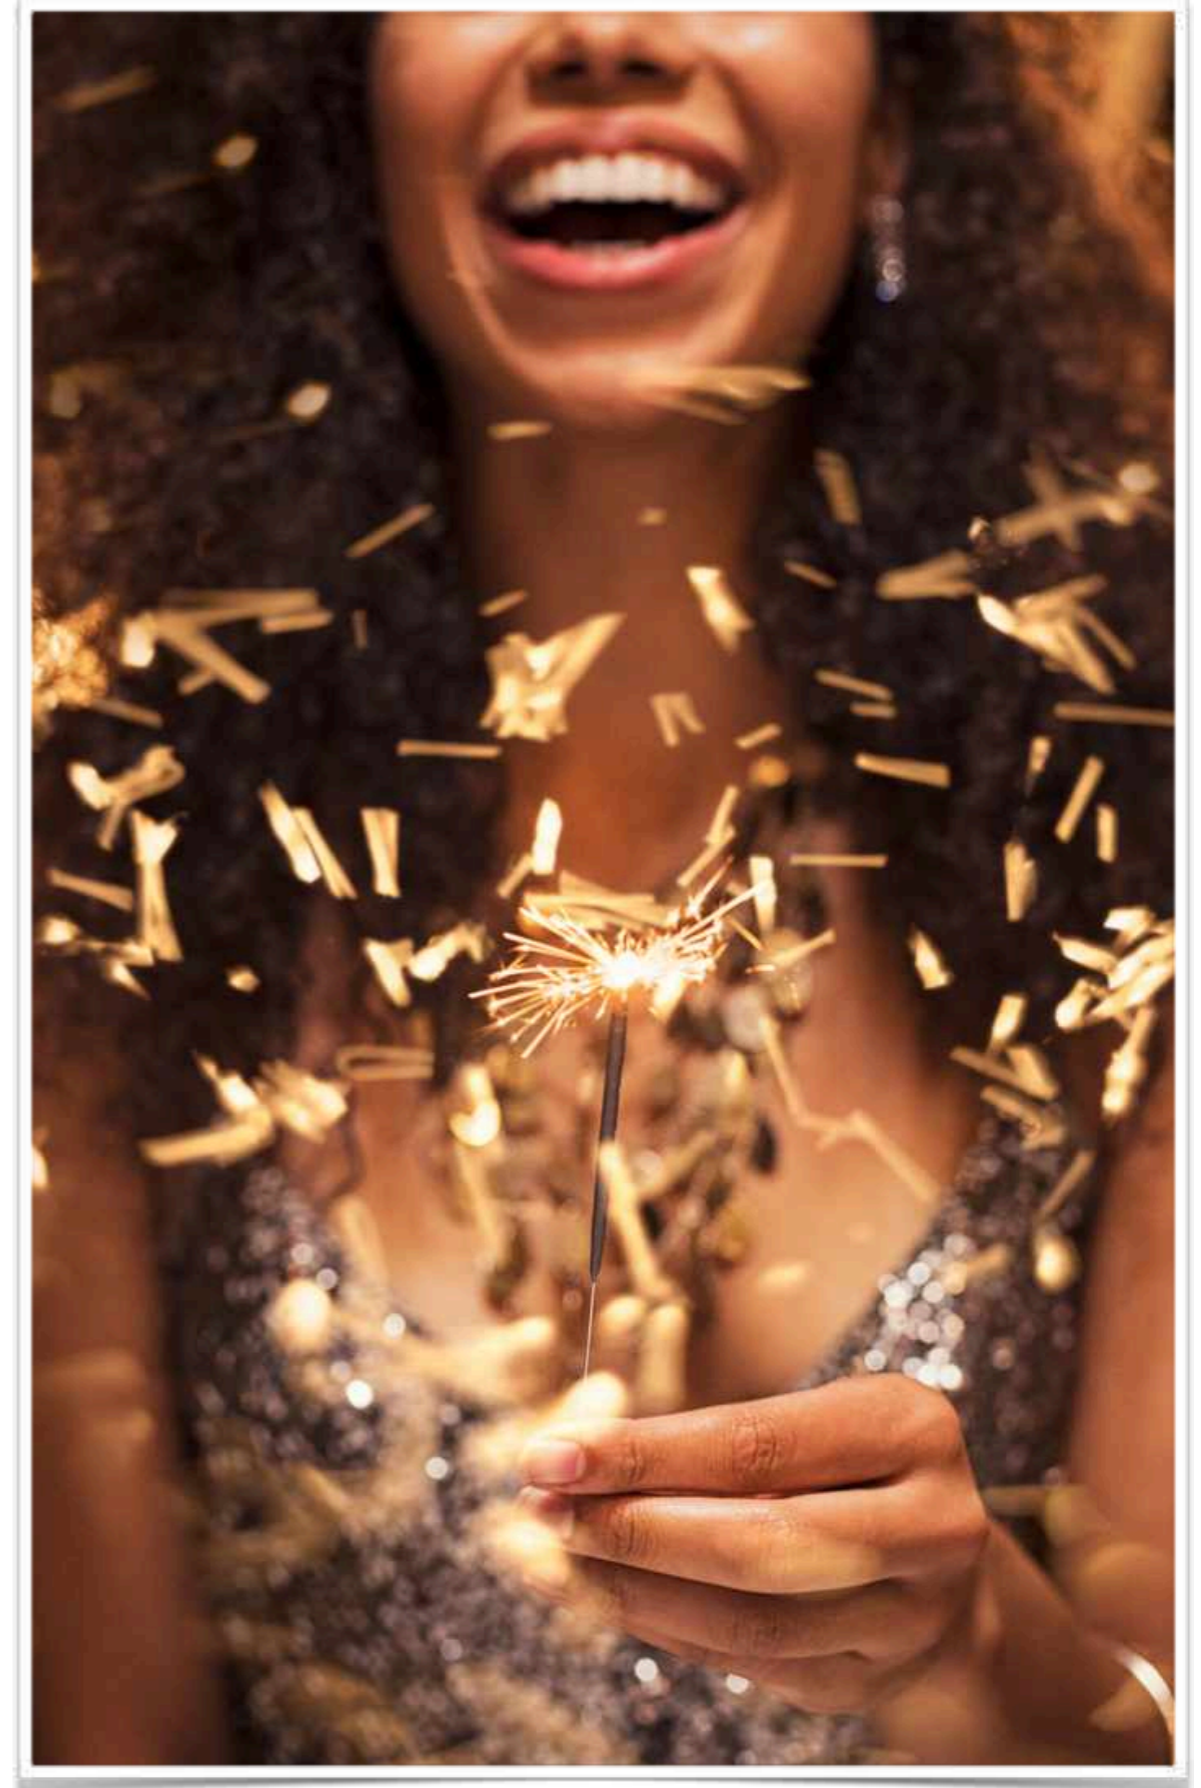

Lets for a moment think of your car! It has 4 wheels, which you know, need to be going in the same direction for you to drive forward and get to your destination with ease.

The same happens in your life if you want to achieve, create and manifest abundant success - in your business, wealth, health and love life.

Most traditional methods & coaches only teach about the mental or physical action elements. So you stay misguided and disconnected from a large percentage of your innate feminine & magnetic power.

Just like trying to drive car with only half the tyres & wheels, any achievements you do have will not be lasting or sustainable because they come at the sacrifice and cost of something else, such as your emotional energy, wellbeing, time, sexuality and joy.

So just like YO-YO dieting, eventually leaving you feeling like your back at square one, making the same mistakes and deflated ...

THE 4 WHEELS OF YOUR MAGNETIC ALIGNMENT!

It's time to accept YOU were born with a POTENT Magnetic powerhouse of energy to tap into, as a woman! You have 4 wheels of power, like on your car!

Wheel 1: The power of your CONSCIOUS MIND!

Wheel 2: The power of your EMOTIONAL ENERGY!

Wheel 3: The power of your BODY and your SEXUAL energy!

Wheel 4: And you have the unlimited power of your SOUL (UNCONSCIOUS MIND/CONSCIOUSNESS itself) your inner being. The part of you that makes you -YOU!

WHY DO WE NEED TO BE IN ALIGNMENT?

All these power sources are like the 4 WHEELS of our own unique vehicle, for our journey of life! The wheels need to be in unison for momentum!

You can use this energetic power FOR YOUR benefit & results - and not turned AGAINST you. Depending on our direction

But the choice is ALWAYS ours!

Not just the ALIGNMENT of our wheels, but the type of vehicle which suits us best and the road we choose to create to drive on.

In life & business we can take the hard route with a rough road, driving a crapy old banger car with no power steering — or we can take the smoother route, the faster lane or scenic pleasure cruise in a Sports car.

If we choose to take hard, bumpy road, in the beat - up old car with wobbly, flat wheels that don't all face the same way we will end up spinning in circles and feeling battered and bruised.

Left feeling deeply frustrated and disappointed and having to work 100x harder to try to get the car to go where we want it to go - this is MISALIGNMENT!

If however we consciously choose to line up ALL our energy wheels to all go forward we tap into the FORCE & laws of the Universe we can positively co-create & manifest an experience that is more like driving a beautiful sports car on a smooth road on a sunny day - enjoying the pleasure of the journey, the power available — and getting to the destination!

Are you willing to be a conscious driver of all 4 wheels of your power?

THE MISALIGNMENT OF YOUR MIND!

You have a clear desire for more positive results in your money & business, but your negative thoughts, beliefs & feelings are creating conflicting energy - like trying to drive with the handbrake being on, it blocks the flow of momentum causing resistance!

As a professional competitive horse rider in training for the Olympics, I had to be very aware of the direction of my mindset. If I doubted that I was going to get over the jump in front of me, the HORSE would pick up on that negative energy through my body and back off, or run out! In fact, always giving me the result I'd been believing!

The same is true in business. We must believe we can make it to the other side & achieve our goals and desires. A BELIEF is ONLY a thought we have thought a lot! So we can always create NEW ones that feel more empowered, joyful and aligned with our desires - like intentionally upgrading your computer software!

NEGATIVE FEELINGS CAN'T ATTRACT POSITIVE RESULTS!

Yet thoughts on their own are not enough!

We need the power of FORWARDING emotional energy to bring the force of positive magnetic attraction.

However if we have NEGATIVE feelings that engage FEAR (of failure) which is a backwards moving emotion

GUILT (for wanting/being successful and abundant) which is sticky energy that pulls you down, or SHAME (for being too big, too rich, too much or for wanting to be that) which is entrapment energy

—we will NEVER get the positive result we desire - but instead keep attracting relative to the negative vibe!

TURNING TO POSITIVE RESULTS!

Our job is to consciously turn the wheels in the right direction, gently releasing the resistance by choosing thoughts, feelings & actions that, like rising up a step ladder, move you into more positive, better feeling thoughts, sensations and momentum.

Try placing yourself the 'other side of the jump' (the problem) with the results you desire and having achieved the solution and focus fully on how you would feel if you already fully there and living it. (satisfaction, relaxation, pride, joy or excitement). What actions would you know take and how would you approaching life and your business?

THE INVISIBLE GLASS CEILING!

Some negative beliefs have become engrained that they create an invisible GLASS CEILING. An emotional belief pattern that you've repetitively played out in your life, that always stops you (tries to protect you) from moving into higher levels of your own personal magnetic and creative power. Blocking you attracting & manifesting richer levels of prosperity & having total freedom and choice in your life. You'll have felt the deep pain & frustration as feel like you're hitting your head against an unseen force that blocks you from RISING UP!

A negative yet protective core belief that is holding you prisoner with ingrained emotional energy of guilt and shame, because you are desiring something you believe will hurt or harm someone else you love. (child magical thinking)

The GOOD GIRL and the acceptance that you are NOT ENOUGH being yourself is the biggest. Yet the feeling that you are not enough, is the sign you are not embodying your full innate and aligned power and self - expression of energy and thoughts, to save someone else. For me, it was to protect my mum (my false self-sacrificing act of love). I believed she could not handle my powerful energy. I found it upset her if I became bigger & more PASSIONATE, so to protect her & so she wouldn't die (she had cancer when I was growing up and had been abused and in Domestic violent relationships before my dad). So I would hold myself back every-time I got too powerful, financially independent & free (and get rid of everything I had so I went back to rags). Prosperity & abundance would not fit my belief model for a long time.

The ONLY way through this glass ceiling is not trying to fight against it, break it or smash it but going to the core within, facing it, accepting all the levels of energy wrapped up in it, and the deep why's, because it is ALL YOUR POWER working against you!

HANDBRAKES BLOCK YOUR MOMENTUM!

HANDBRAKES are the F.E.A.R based beliefs, such as the fear of failure, fear of rejection, fear of abandonment that cause resistance in your momentum. They slow you down like driving with the handbrake on in your car but they are ALWAYS opportunities for growth and expansion. When they arise it time to FACE the fear, be courageous, accept it, feel it, get realigned and move forward once again.

Once faced, they lose their power and dissolve because it is always FALSE.EVIDENCE.APPEARING.REAL!

REASON 4: Why Traditional Business Coaches Fail You

The Masculine-Led Approach

Most business and money coaches fail you by ONLY focusing on half the equation leading with MASCULINE ENERGY, & the nuts & bolts of business.

Whilst NOT delivering the truth your profitable success, joy, fun, growth and satisfaction & freedom in your business & lifestyle - without sacrifice!

Because they believe that you have to WAIT and IF you get the MONEY you will THEN get the joy & satisfaction!

So you need to keep WORKING harder, push harder, focus MORE and try to generate the fuel & flow of momentum ALL by yourself... using only half your energy.

Whilst delaying your life & pleasure until you've finally made it & proven you are good enough to HAVE it.

This is backwards thinking, but it is because...

- They are ONLY embodying the Masculine energy themselves, even if they are a female coach, they still feel MASCULINE to be with!
- They perpetuate the PUSH HARDER - force on through method, with disregard for your Gut/Inner knowing/Intuition
- Focusing on the physical production of your business (the marketing and ideal clients for example), but often leave confusion in the infrastructure & sales. Whilst they tend little or not at all, to the VITAL connection or disconnection with your Emotional Energy, beliefs & receptivity.
- Certainly, they don't address the elements of Attraction, Emotional Vibration, and Manifesting Success and Money in harmony with the Laws of the Universe!
- Your Resistance points such as Glass Ceiling & Handbrakes are ignored, told to suck it up, push on through, work harder and with a just 'motivate yourself more' attitude!

The truth is some of the greatest men in business history, such as Henry Ford, Isaac Newton, Andrew Carnegie, Warren Buffet & Tony Robbins have all been recorded talking about using their internal guidance, the power of the mind & infinite consciousness and the law of attraction to develop highly profitable corporations and 8/9/10 + figure incomes.

Nowadays the Law of vibration and manifesting has become more mainstream with big names such as Oprah, Dr Wayne Dyer, Gabby Bernstein, Rhonda Byrne, Louise Hay highlighting the potential available.

And yet the endless business & coaching given still churns out the unprofitable DIY METHOD (do-it-all-by-yourself) - traditional method.

Which is founded on 80% effort, struggle, push and 20% hope - which bears small fruit in terms of ROI, revenue and pleasure.

This method is outdated and has never worked for anyone EVER without sacrificing core resources and your soul.

This traditional method will leave you in a NARROW, constricted and struggling hard until burnout and failure

There is a much more natural, expansive and JOYFUL route to your success using ALL that is MISSING by these coaches and OLD limited ways.

A BIG FAT WARNING:

It is important that all the good & essential parts of this Masculine Energy, Structure, Action & Business Systems must not be dismissed.

For they are needed to support your magnetic creative & passionate spiritual Force to manifest in the material and physical realm.

Without it your powerful feminine force will have NO clear direction. Left unguided without focus it becomes chaotic & dispersed. It then works against YOU and confuses the FLOW of manifestation from the Universe.

Causing massive confusion in the business & life!

You will find yourself chasing your tail, losing time without boundaries, gaining a lack of confidence and more stress.

The clients you attract will become less than ideal, more difficult and needy and you will find them exhausting to work with.

This level of low vibe client will create lesser income and lower payments resulting in a lack of profit & freedom for you.

The lack of healthy Masculine energy, structure and system will lead you to a downwards spiral of lack of value, lack of energy, lack of money, lack of clients, loss of business.

I have been on both sides of this imbalance, trying to only work with only one half of myself and my power - and the results were ALWAYS the same - the sacrifice of ME and manifesting a lack of money, a lack of soul, a lack of energy and feeling unsafe, a failure and not good enough - and becoming resentful, angry and anxious.

THE BALANCE OF THE RIVER

It's easy to understand that a strong flowing river needs to be surrounded by firm riverbanks & riverbeds, so it can flow successfully to its destination. Yet many women forget to have this same unity in their own lives and business.

No matter whether you are the owner, CEO, creator, coach etc, you are just like the River! And it is the river who is the LEADER who firstly carves the way for the strong banks, to support her to flow powerfully! YOUR internal FEMININE ENERGY is the energetic life FORCE, magnetic vibe and creative direction of the FLOW of your business!

The Riverbanks are BOTH your internal masculine boundaries & your external BUSINESS, as a MONEY vehicle (as a direct and clear system that offers Masculine structure) that can support the creative momentum, help attract rain (sales) and hold the increased FLOW of results as it builds momentum!

Harnessing Positive Masculine Energy!

Commitment, Focus & Drive!

Let's return to the car and think about what you would need if you were taking a long journey across the country, from your current starting point, to an end destination many miles away. You know that there would be essentials you would need to get there - such as having enough fuel, a clear route & map etc...as well as a solid vehicle that can get you there!

The same is with your business! This is when you need to harness your powerful direct Masculine Energy positively. The fuel is your magnetic alignment, but you will need to pack COMMITMENT & Dedication to your dream & Desire, even if you wobble and veer off route a little and you will (the destination). FOCUS (forward thinking) and routine practices to help stay on track & alignment (the map). A planned route (a business plan & clear system) even if changes & improves. And the DRIVE, to take ALIGNED & INSPIRED action every day, towards your destination with BELIEF & faith in yourself and excitement in the adventure of the journey!

REASON 5: YOUR BUSINESS IS NOT YOUR BABY!

Traditional business methods don't work for spiritual women, because we can become so emotionally entangled seeing our business and self as ONE and wrapped up in our individual identity and sense of self.

Treating it like a baby, because it is a creation that is wrapped up with our heart.

Which causes great struggle to let it go and allow it to grow.

Each result is taken as a personal reflection and extension of us as individuals. So if the business or revenue, profits are failing then we must be bad or wrong in some way, and if they are good and growing we are good.

The truth is a baby or even a child cannot and should not be made to support you financially, physically and materially etc as an adult.

Yet we ask the same of our business creation and soul desire without giving it the system and structures it needs to support it to be strong in the physical.

By shifting our mindset, we can create separation and gain clarity that business system is just a vehicle with nuts and bolts.

You are absolutely where your business starts from.

You are the FUEL to your business, the source of its design and creation, the passion and the SOUL and the alignment of your full magnetic power is essential.

But you are not the vehicle, the practical machine that is your business.

Your business system needs you to be an engineer who can step back with clarity, be open to test and explore and find what works and get the right help to fix the bits aren't.

So you can focus on the part that you LOVE.

The vehicle of your business is the structure to achieve that, with as much ease and grace - it's not personal, it's business!

Your Money Vehicle!

Your Business Is You, But You Are Not Your Business

Alignment!

Business System!

It's Starts With YOU As The Driving Energy
(A Magnetic & Creative Force that amplifies your business with EASE!)

A NO HUSSLE online or offline System is the Money Vehicle!

Attract - Present - Sell Offer - Close Sale - Deliver - Upgrade

DRIVING IN THE WRONG LANE!

Returning to the car analogy — Imagine you are in the inside lane on the highway with all the lorries and slow old drivers. It wouldn't matter, whether you had the best sports car and how hard you tried you would not be able to speed up, move forward and achieve your goals — if you stayed in this lane!

You might get somewhere eventually but you would be so exhausted and disheartened you would have lost all interest and enjoyment for it!

All your efforts & energy would feel fruitless and disheartening - because you are in the WRONG lane for YOU and the only way out is to pull out and switch lanes.

The same happens in your business when you are NOT in alignment with your truth, your joy, your desires and your RIGHT audience for sales, marketplace and business model.

You'll meet the wrong people who are not interested, or who make it a really hard cold sell or don't have the money!

Like the prosperity flip, the same needs to happen!

All your creativity, focus, drive and effort has borne little results because you're in the wrong lane. Get into the right lane and you will begin to quickly see results, because it's a faster, clearer lane!

DON'T BE DISHEARTENED BY WHATS BEEN BEFORE!

It's so important that you don't judge the NEW LANE with what hasn't worked previously & assuming that it won't work for you this time, or that it won't get better!

Being in the wrong lane would naturally make you feel like a failure, and not achieve the results you desire or only at a very high cost.

As you use this guidance in this handbook and meditation to get into alignment with the BUSINESS OF YOU, a switch will happen internally and you will then need to make alterations in your business to now match this alignment & switch lanes for the right lane for YOU!

Clear indicators that you are now in the right lane will be naturally attracting & connecting with people who say YES, that you find it easy to talk about your business with joy, passion through marketing, video etc & you see the sales, opportunities & money start to roll in.

REASON 6 - SELLING IS NOT BAD OR HARD!

High Value Selling Like A Queen

Traditional business methods would tell you selling is a challenge that has to be overcome! The holy grail of business (so don't expect it to be easy) which takes stamina.

Yet as women we're born to sell! Whether in our job, in our business, or our day to day life (including our relationships), we are selling an idea, a look, an experience, a feeling, ourselves or a result! Yet like all power we can either manipulate for good and for bad.

Yet if we shame selling and perceive it is a chore or a sin - a necessary evil we must endure, we will act and behave from fear and lack of value. The Fear then makes us extremely UNATTRACTIVE to potential clients...

Selling when you are aligned with your full magnetic feminine power, your soul and masculine clarity it becomes natural and attract Higher Value potential clients. An easy PRESENTATION & conversation with those who want you because you are working with The Universe & your soul — making it so much effortless & profitable.

WHEN THE SELLING IS OFF!

The old business methods can lead us into either dominating sales techniques or pestering - cloying, persuading behaviour, trying to create a connection.

Trying to get someone to sign up, buy or engage with you under a sugar coating of false niceties and endless talking, pressuring them to be into you - believing you can fix them, save them from the problem.

It happens because you are not grounded, balanced & aligned in your own power, not crystal clear about your VALUE, don't have faith the solution you offer and conviction in the outcomes you can deliver.

So just like in dating it's deeply unattractive & untrustworthy behaviour —Your presenting selling is OFF because you are OFF-Balance.

You are then not in a position to build a trust based connection and consultative approach to build on.

Yet we can become a selling QUEEN - who attract high return sales & engagement. A woman who knows how to attract, nurture & lead the sale. Absolute in her true WORTH and presents it to the world effortlessly & naturally through her energy, language, clothing and attitude.

LEAD THE SALE LIKE A RULER

When you are selling like a Queen, you must be prepared to RULE. A Queen never has to CHASE, pester or pursue after people, because she is always authentically marketing clearly to the world & the Universe who she is and her VALUE!

My client Abi discovered that as she stepped into her presence as a QUEEN her client base expanded, she tripled her income whilst working less, she gained more energy, freedom and satisfaction in the work and her clients faster & better results too because she was now potent in her actions.

A queen does not need to dominate, as she expects to meet the same high value and respect value in return attracted by her vibe! She will lead every sale with confidence, clarity and total belief in her authority. She will listen to the problem, guide to the solution with a strategy for a swift beneficial result for all.

As a Queen you MUST be clear & know the VALUE of;

- What YOU have to offer!
- Your products/services & skills!
- Your time!
- Your thoughts, beliefs, creative ideas, inspirations!
- Your emotional energy!
- Your expertise, wisdom, life experiences!
- Your magnetic power & how you focus it!
- Your inner guidance & connection the Universe!

REASON 7 - RICH MAN'S WORLD

Have You Got A Negative Money Story?

Let's talk about MONEY! You are in business because you want more MONEY! Financial freedom, fun and no money stress. You want to be able to support your family and yourself. To give to those in need and have luxuries, travel and enjoying your MONEY vehicle.

That is all wonderful and you deserve it ... and yet difficult, a struggle or impossible if you have a heap of negative hang ups & resistance about MONEY itself — which is not hard to have in this so called Rich Mans World.

But Money flows to those who love & enjoy her - do you?

Let me tell you a story about the GODDESS Money, who held the GOODNESS of Money!

There once was a young Goddess called Money who was birthed from pure energy and into form by the desires of the people, as she assisted them in exchanging food, goods and services. As the people became more intelligent, sophisticated and further reaching they wanted something easier to manage and carry!

So the Goddess came forth in form and into each gold coin she resided as pure love.

So Love would always be the value of exchange that flowed between the people and out into the world, as they thanked and honoured the services they were buying and selling.

So everyone knew their true value and appreciated it in each other. Now that money could be used more easily the people began to build bigger things and travel further fields.

Money was a kind and loving goddess and always made sure there was plenty for everyone and no one would ever run out, because like the love that flowed between transactions it was endless. This was a glorious time of prosperity for all.

Yet the people began to be distracted by the coins they held, and forgot that the gold coins were only vessels of love and extensions of the goddess Money. So fear crept in, as the people became more and more fixated on the physical coins in their hands and how good it felt to have them. They began to worry that the gold coins could run out or that others had more than them.

As fear tainted the gold coins they were turned into paper and the GOODNESS of money was hidden in plain sight but out of reach, as the people could no longer feel the love that once flowed.

So Money was blamed and rejected by the people. Once adored as love and ease, she was now considered as evil and the cause of the suffering the people were feeling. As though she had taken the goodness away because no amount of paper would bring back the good feelings they used to have. It was now all empty and cold, where it was once a warm and pleasurable and full of love.

The Goddess and the goodness she brought with money could no longer flow freely because the people's hearts had closed, as they called her a bitch and cruel.

So she patiently waited, just creating more and more gold coins for the day when the people would once again open their hearts and minds, to the Goodness of money! To allowing to flow richly into their hands and share great love & appreciation with each exchange of product and service. For MONEY to be welcomed once more with open hearts and minds as GOODNESS to be shared and received with ease.
